The average commission income for a Liberty National representative that stayed with the Company for 12 months in 2008 was $61,675. The Company's available positions potentially offer applicants a medical insurance package as well as a retirement plan, a 401(k) plan, disability, dental and group life coverage. However, applicants only qualify for these benefits after reaching certain performance thresholds.

Since 1900, Liberty National has been a major provider of individual life and supplemental health insurance products for both the under age 65 and senior markets. It also markets payroll deduction/Section 125 voluntary worksite benefits.

Job seekers who are unable to attend should e-mail springfieldnorthbranch@gmail.com or libnat178@gmail.com, or call (417) 831-1441 or (417) 882-9777 to schedule an alternate interview time.
